INTERAGENCY SECURITY COMMITTEE AWARDS

2024 FIVE STAR AWARD

The Federal Government Distance Learning Association presented the Interagency Security Committee (ISC) with the Five Star Award for its Risk Management Process (RMP) and Facility Security Committee (FSC) Virtual, Instructor-Led Training (VILT). The Five Star award recognizes a Federal Government organization for their leadership and best practices in the development and application of proven distance learning technologies supporting the Federal Government.

2023 PLATINUM ASTORS AWARDS FROM AMERICAN SECURITY TODAY

The ISC's RMP and FSC Training Program received the 2023 'ASTORS' Homeland Security Award for Excellence in Public Safety. The RMP and FSC Training team earned a prestigious Platinum Award rating. American Security Today recognized the course for the proactivity and dedication its facilitators bring and for improving security practices to better protect federal facilities and the employees and public that visit them.

The Design-Basis Threat (DBT) Subcommittee, in partnership with the Federal Protective Service (FPS) and Argonne National Lab (ANL) received the 2023 'ASTORS' Homeland Security Award for Excellence in Federal Government Security Program for development of an updated threat analysis methodology. The DBT Subcommittee also earned platinum honors. In 2022, the DBT Subcommittee created a Methodology Focus Group to evaluate the threat analysis model used in assigning threat ratings for each undesirable event profiled in the DBT Report. Leveraging an FPS partnership with ANL, the group conducted several lengthy online sessions to complete 54 value and objective elicitations. The Subcommittee then adopted a new risk-utility model. This new model redefined the two-objective model to a three-objective model including capability, history, and intentions, allowing for further depth of analysis and comparison of threats to federal facilities.

2022 PLATINUM ASTORS AWARD FROM AMERICAN SECURITY TODAY

The ISC's RMP and FSC Training Program received the 2022 Platinum ASTORs Award from American Security Today in the category of Best Federal Government Security Program, Excellence in Public Safety.
