

The President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee

Committee Member Biography The President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee

Peter Altabef
President and Chief Executive Officer
Unisys Corporation

Mr. Peter Altabef has been the president and chief executive officer (CEO) of Unisys Corporation since January 1, 2015. He also sits on the company's board of directors. From January 2013 until September 2014, Mr. Altabef served as president and CEO of MICROS Systems, Inc., until its acquisition by Oracle Corporation. Prior to that, he was the president and CEO of Perot Systems Corporation from 2004 until its 2009 acquisition by Dell, Inc. Mr. Altabef then served as president of Dell Services, the information technology services and business process solutions unit of Dell, Inc.. He has also acted as a senior advisor to 2M Companies, Inc., as well as a director at MICROS Systems, Inc., Perot Systems Corporation, and Belo Corporation. Mr. Altabef is currently a member of the boards of directors of NiSource, Inc., and the EastWest Institute; a member of the board of advisors of Merit Energy Company, LLC; and a member of the advisory board of Petrus Trust Company, LTA. Mr. Altabef received a juris doctorate from the University of Chicago Law School, and a bachelor of arts degree in economics from the State University of New York at Binghamton.

