

The President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee

Committee Member Biography The President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee

Robert Carrigan
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
Dun & Bradstreet Corporation

Mr. Robert Carrigan is chairman of the board and chief executive officer (CEO) of Dun & Bradstreet Corporation. He has led the company as CEO since October 2013, and was appointed chairman in December 2016. Mr. Carrigan was previously CEO of IDG Communications, Inc., where he led the company's media operations, including online, print, and events in 90 countries. Under his leadership, IDG transformed from a print publisher to a leading digital media company and the worldwide leader in the technology event and media space. Prior to becoming CEO in 2008, Mr. Carrigan held several senior leadership roles at IDG, including president and CEO for its business units in the United States. Previously, he spent four years at America Online, Inc., where he was senior vice president of the Interactive Marketing Group. Mr. Carrigan currently serves as a member of the board of directors of IDG. He graduated from Boston University with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

